

FERNSIDE FAVORITES

BOOKS FOR CHILDREN/TEENS AFTER A SUICIDE

TITLE	YEAR	AUTHOR	READER/AUDIENCE
AFTER A SUICIDE: A WORKBOOK FOR GRIEVING KIDS*	2001	The Dougy Center	Grades 1-8
Hands-on, interactive workbook allows children who are grieving a suicide to express their thoughts and feelings.
AFTER SUICIDE: LIVING WITH THE QUESTIONS	2001	Eileen Kuehn	Grades 7-12
An informative book which includes Teen Talk, Fast Facts, photographs and summaries.
BART SPEAKS OUT BREAKING THE SILENCE ON SUICIDE*	1998	Linda Goldman	Grades K-3
An interactive book for children on how to deal with grief and loss after suicide. Limited availability.
LUNA'S RED HAT*	2015	Emmi Smid	Grades Pre-5
Luna is upset and confused when her mother dies by suicide. Luna's dad explains that her mother had an illness inside her brain.
MY UNCLE KEITH DIED	2006	Carol Ann Loehr	Grades 4-8
Cody has questions that his Mom answers about his uncle's death. Through their dialogue, the book describes symptoms of depression and helps young readers understand why a depressed person may not seek help.
SOMEONE I LOVE DIED BY SUICIDE: A STORY FOR CHILD SURVIVORS AND THOSE WHO CARE FOR THEM*	2001	Doreen Cammarata	Grades 4-8
This book is designed for adults to read to children following a suicide death. This book recognizes many symptoms of grief and ways to promote healthy coping following a death.

*Indicates item is available in the Fernside Resource Center. Materials may be borrowed. Please call ahead.